Initial Board Resolutions

Organizational Meeting These resolutions are adopted by the initial Board of Directors of Knights of The Kingdom of Christ Order, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of [State], at the organizational meeting held on the ____ day of _____, 20__.

Resolutions Adopted 1. Ratification of formation. The filing of the Articles of Incorporation and all acts taken by the incorporator in connection with the formation of the corporation are approved, adopted, ratified, and confirmed.

2. Adoption of bylaws. The bylaws presented to the Board are approved and adopted as the bylaws of the corporation.
3. Acceptance of incorporator statement. The Board accepts the incorporator's statement appointing the initial directors, if such statement is required or has been executed, and directs that it be placed in the corporate records.
4. Establishment of principal office. The principal office shall be located at [Principal Office Address], or at such other place as may be approved by the Board from time to time.
5. Confirmation of registered agent and registered office. The registered agent and registered office stated in the Articles are confirmed and approved until changed in accordance with law.
6. Election of officers. The following persons are elected to serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until earlier resignation or removal: Grand Master / President or Chair: [Name]; Seneschal / Vice President: [Name]; Chancellor / Secretary: [Name]; Treasurer: [Name]; Marshal: [Name]; Prior / Chaplain General: [Name]; Draper: [Name]; Preceptor or Commander General: [Name]. For purposes of civil law and corporate administration, the legal officer equivalencies set forth in the bylaws are confirmed.
7. Recognition of ceremonial titles as internal only. All ceremonial and historical titles used by the corporation, including but not limited to Grand Master, Seneschal, Marshal, Prior, Preceptor, Commander, Draper, Knight, Sergeant, Chaplain, Squire, and Novice, are internal nonprofit, ceremonial, educational, spiritual, or administrative designations only, and shall not be construed as conferring military, police, governmental, ecclesiastical, sovereign, or law-enforcement authority outside the internal affairs of the corporation.
8. Non-militia and non-paramilitary policy. The corporation shall not function as a militia, paramilitary body, private army, private security force, patrol organization, or law-enforcement organization, and no activity of the corporation shall be conducted in a manner inconsistent with that policy.
9. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the 1st day of [Month] and end on the 30th or 31st day of [Month], unless later changed by Board resolution.
10. Authorization to obtain EIN. The proper officers are authorized and directed to apply for and obtain an Employer Identification Number from the Internal Revenue Service.

11. Authorization to open bank account. The Treasurer and Grand Master, or any other officers designated by the Board, are authorized to open one or more bank accounts in the name of the corporation with such financial institution as they may select. The authorized signers shall be [Name], [Name], and [Name]. Any disbursement above $[Amount] shall require the approval of two authorized persons unless otherwise determined by future Board resolution.

12. Financial controls. The Board adopts the following initial financial control principles: funds shall be kept separate from personal funds; all receipts and disbursements shall be accurately recorded; no officer or director shall use corporate assets for personal benefit except as expressly authorized by law and Board action; reimbursements shall require documentation; and the Treasurer shall provide regular financial reports to the Board.

13. Authorization to seek tax-exempt status. The Board authorizes the appropriate officers to prepare, execute, and file all applications, forms, schedules, and supporting materials necessary to seek federal tax-exempt recognition under the subsection of Section 501(c) determined by the Board to be the best fit for the corporation's mission and operations.

14. Tax and regulatory filings. Officers are authorized and directed to make all required federal, state, and local filings, registrations, reports, and renewals necessary for lawful operation.

15. Charitable solicitation compliance. Before soliciting charitable contributions in any jurisdiction, the officers shall determine whether charitable solicitation registration or notice filings are required in that jurisdiction and shall ensure compliance before solicitations begin.

16. Corporate records book. The Chancellor / Secretary is directed to establish and maintain a corporate records book containing the Articles, bylaws, minutes, resolutions, incorporator statement, officer and director lists, tax records, charters of subordinate bodies, and other records required by law or prudent governance.

17. Corporate seal and insignia. The Board authorizes the development and later adoption of a corporate seal, insignia, emblems, banners, and regalia, subject to Board approval and legal compliance, including avoidance of false claims of official governmental, ecclesiastical, or historical authority and avoidance of unlawful trademark infringement.

18. Membership program. Officers are authorized to develop initial membership forms, orientation materials, standards of admission, dues schedules, and internal formation procedures for Novices, Squires, Sergeants, Knights, Chaplains, and such other membership classes as may be authorized.

19. Code of conduct and conflict-of-interest policy. The Board directs the preparation and adoption of a written code of conduct and conflict-of-interest policy, and until formal adoption of more detailed versions, all directors and officers shall conduct themselves in good faith, disclose material conflicts, and act in the best interests of the corporation.

20. Insurance review. Officers are authorized to explore and obtain appropriate insurance coverage for the corporation, including general liability insurance and directors and officers liability insurance, as prudent and available.

21. Subordinate bodies. No subordinate commandery, preceptory, priory, lodge, chapter, or house shall be chartered until the Board approves a written charter form, reporting requirements, and governance standards for such subordinate body.

22. Public communications policy. No officer, member, or representative may publicly claim that the corporation is the original medieval Knights Templar, an officially recognized sovereign order, a church authority, a military body, or a law-enforcement entity unless such claim is factually accurate, legally supportable, and expressly approved by the Board.

23. Approval of initial expenses. The corporation may reimburse the incorporator or other authorized persons for reasonable formation expenses, filing fees, and startup costs incurred on behalf of the corporation, upon presentation of documentation and approval consistent with law and Board policy.

24. Organizational actions generally. Officers are authorized and directed to take such further actions, execute such further documents, and pay such fees as may be necessary or advisable to carry out the intent of these resolutions and complete the lawful organization of the corporation.

25. Certification. Adopted this ____ day of _____, 20____, by the undersigned directors. Certified by [Name], Chancellor / Secretary.
