

Code of Conduct

Knights of The Kingdom of Christ Order

Code of Conduct

Purpose The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to establish standards of behavior for directors, officers, members, volunteers, employees, and representatives of Knights of The Kingdom of Christ Order. The Order is a nonprofit organization devoted to charitable, educational, religious, historical, and fraternal purposes, and all persons associated with the Order shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with its mission, governing documents, and applicable law.

Core Standards All persons covered by this Code shall act with honesty, good faith, civility, self-discipline, respect for others, and fidelity to the mission of the Order. They shall protect the reputation, assets, and legal standing of the Order and shall avoid conduct that could materially injure the organization.

Lawful Conduct No covered person shall engage in unlawful conduct in connection with the Order. The Order shall not function as a militia, paramilitary body, private army, law-enforcement organization, private security force, or armed patrol, and no member or officer may claim such authority on behalf of the Order.

Respect and Non-Harassment Covered persons shall treat one another and the public with dignity and respect. Harassment, intimidation, bullying, threats, retaliation, abuse, or unlawful discrimination are prohibited. Differences of opinion shall be handled through orderly, respectful, and lawful processes.

Truthful Representation No person shall knowingly make false, misleading, or exaggerated statements about the Order, its legal status, tax status, authority, history, succession, recognition, affiliations, or leadership. No one may falsely claim that the Order is the original medieval Knights Templar or an officially recognized sovereign, military, ecclesiastical, or governmental body.

Financial Integrity Covered persons shall safeguard the funds, property, and records of the Order. They shall not embezzle, misuse, divert, conceal, or waste corporate assets. Reimbursements, purchases, and disbursements shall be handled according to policy and with proper documentation.

Conflicts of Interest All covered persons shall comply with the Order's conflict-of-interest policy. Personal interests must not be allowed to interfere with service to the Order.

Confidentiality Covered persons shall protect confidential or sensitive nonpublic information, including donor information, membership information, disciplinary matters, strategic plans, financial details, and internal deliberations, except where disclosure is authorized or required by law.

Use of Titles and Regalia Titles, insignia, regalia, badges, mantles, and ceremonial distinctions shall be used with dignity and only in accordance with the Order's rules. Such items may not be used to intimidate others, obtain personal advantage, imply unlawful authority, or mislead the public.

Safety and Nonviolence Violence, threats of violence, dangerous conduct, and incitement are prohibited. Weapons shall not be brought to Order events except as expressly permitted by a written policy that complies with venue rules and applicable law. No weapons policy shall be interpreted to authorize militia, patrol, or security activity.

Social Media and Public Communications Persons speaking publicly or online about the Order shall do so responsibly and accurately. No one may bind the Order, issue official statements, or represent the organization's legal position without proper authorization.

Reporting and Cooperation Covered persons shall report credible concerns involving fraud, harassment, safety, abuse, conflicts of interest, retaliation, or serious policy violations to the appropriate officer, committee, or Board representative. Covered persons shall cooperate honestly in internal reviews or investigations.

Violations and Discipline Violations of this Code may result in admonition, training, suspension, removal from office, limitation of privileges, expulsion, termination, or other corrective action as authorized by the bylaws, policies, and applicable law.

Acknowledgment All covered persons may be required to sign an acknowledgment confirming that they have received, read, and agree to comply with this Code of Conduct.

Acknowledgment:

I acknowledge that I have received and read the Code of Conduct of Knights of The Kingdom of Christ Order, and I agree to comply with it.

Name: _____ Signature: _____ Date: _____