

Quiz Answer Keys

Knights of The Kingdom of Christ Order

Quiz Answer Keys

Instructions for Schoolmasters These answer keys correspond to the sample question banks in the Promotion and Assessment Guide. Schoolmasters may copy, adapt, or expand them, but should preserve the distinction between age level and rank level.

Squire Quiz Key 1. The major event before the Templars were formed was the First Crusade. Correct answer: B. 2. The first Templars were formed to protect pilgrims. Correct answer: C. 3. The founder most closely linked with the order is Hugh de Payns. Correct answer: B. 4. The early headquarters were on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Correct answer: C. 5. The church gathering that approved the order was the Council of Troyes. Correct answer: B. 6. The pope who granted major privileges in 1139 was Innocent II. Correct answer: A. 7. The city whose fall weakened the order's original military purpose was Acre. Correct answer: B. 8. The ruler who ordered the arrest of the Templars in France in 1307 was Philip IV. Correct answer: C. 9. The pope who suppressed the order in 1312 was Clement V. Correct answer: B. 10. The last Grand Master was Jacques de Molay. Correct answer: C.

Squire Short Answer Expectations Why were pilgrims important to the order? Expected answer should mention travel to Jerusalem, danger on the roads, and the protective mission of the early Templars. What is the difference between history and legend? Expected answer should mention evidence, sources, and the danger of repeating stories without proof.

Adult Member and Sergeant Quiz Key 1. After the First Crusade, Crusader states were established but remained vulnerable. Correct answer: B. 2. Hugh de Payns founded the order to defend pilgrims and Holy Land routes. Correct answer: B. 3. The Council of Troyes approved the order. Correct answer: C. 4. Bernard of Clairvaux defended and promoted the new knighthood ideal. Correct answer: B. 5. Omne Datum Optimum is associated with major papal privileges for the order. Correct answer: A. 6. Duke was not one of the main historical membership classes. Correct answer: D. 7. The fall of Acre in 1291 most weakened the original mission. Correct answer: B. 8. Philip IV likely targeted the Templars for a mixture of fear, politics, and money. Correct answer: C. 9. In 1312 the order was formally suppressed. Correct answer: B. 10. In 1314 Jacques de Molay was executed. Correct answer: C.

Adult Discussion Review Notes Strong answers should mention the First Crusade background, the founding mission, church approval, papal privilege, loss of strategic purpose after Acre, and the combined political and financial pressures leading to suppression.

Sergeant to Knight Quiz Key 1. Early headquarters were in the Al-Aqsa and Temple Mount complex in Jerusalem. Correct answer: B. 2. The second in command was the Seneschal. Correct answer: C. 3. The office responsible for administration and provisions was the Preceptor or Commander. Correct answer: A. 4. The chief military officer was the Marshal. Correct answer: B. 5. After 1139 the order gained major autonomy under the pope. Correct answer: C. 6. The Council of Troyes came first in the listed sequence. Correct answer: C. 7. The strongest explanation for the order's destruction is a mixture of political pressure, financial motives, and scandal. Correct answer: B. 8. After suppression, many assets were transferred mainly to the Hospitallers. Correct answer: B.

Officer-Level Quiz Key 1. The most responsible leadership teaches students how to weigh sources carefully. Correct answer: B. 2. The most accurate summary is that the Templars were approved early, privileged by the papacy, then later suppressed under pressure. Correct answer: C. 3. The office historically handling finance was the Treasurer. Correct answer: A. 4. The best source-criticism question is: who wrote this, when, and why? Correct answer: B. 5. A modern Schoolmaster should reject false claims of lineage to boost prestige. Correct answer: C. 6. The most important quality for a Major-grade educational officer is the ability to preserve standards and train instructors. Correct answer: B.

Scoring Guide Recommended passing score for squires is 75 to 80 percent depending on age and maturity. Recommended passing score for adult new members is 80 percent. Recommended passing score for Sergeant to Knight candidates is 85 percent. Officer-level assessments should combine written work with oral performance.